Parent contact:

Parents must agree with the following:

- My administration fee is payable when I start Tickton Pre-school and Play Pals (£35).
- Parents are required to send their children in appropriate clothes that will allow them to explore all activities with confidence (including messy play activities/paint/sand/water).
- If my child needs nappies/wipes I will provided these.
- I will provide a pack-lunch if my child is staying for lunch time sessions.
- We request that personal toys/items are left at home so they are not lost. Tickton pre-school and Play Pals cannot take responsibility for any lost items.
- I will ensure my child has sun cream provided when needed.
- Please clearly mark all children clothing, shoes and bags with their name.
- Parents must not send their children to Pre-school/Play Pals if they are ill/unwell. Children must be kept off after sickness for 48 hours (see policy).
- Fees are required to be paid by the following half term. We do except childcare vouchers. Payment plans can be set up - please ask the setting manager. We prefer fees to be paid by BACS or CHQ.
- Children are required to attend promptly and be collected on time. Parents will be charged for late collections. However, parent can request that pre-school children stay into Play Pals sessions (wrap-around care).
- Parents must give Tickton pre-school and Play Pals 4 weeks' notice if leaving setting. Fees must be paid to this date.
- Please inform us if your child will be absent from a session/s.
- We promote healthy eating and parents must respect this when providing pack lunches for children.
- All parents must complete a ER funding contract if taking up free childcare (30 Hour funding, 15 Hour funding, two-year funding). Parents will need to register on-line to receive their childcare PIN code. Our manager is happy to help parents do this.

I agree to the above terms and conditions.
